Introduction

Euroguidance Hungary started operating in Szeged in 2000 within the framework of the Leonardo da Vinci Programme of the European Commission. Presently it operates as a unit of the National Office of Vocational Education and Training and Adult Learning. During the period of 2014-2020 the European Union background is provided by the ERASMUS+ programme. The main objectives of the centre are to support vocational guidance, lifelong learning and international mobility and to promote Hungarian and international counselling projects as well as language learning and employability.

On our website, www.euroguidance.hu you can find lots of information on European education opportunities, higher education institutions as well as on vocational trainings. Visitors can also gain information on the conditions of entering the tertiary education and on the mutual recognition of qualifications.
